

"He made the Stars also..."

GOD made two great lights; the greater to rule over the day, and the lesser to rule over the night. He made the stars also. Perhaps you are discouraged. Maybe you think that you do not count... that you are not even needed in the church. Maybe you are blindfolded to the opportunities that are all about you. Remember, He made the stars also. He made you.

THOUGH it may seem dark all about you and you may think your lights are all in vain, God never creates worthless things nor useless lives. Sure, He needs great lights... great leaders, but "He made the stars also." He made you and me. As much as God needs great men He also needs small, humble ones to take stations as reflectors. He made the stars to reflect the light of the sun.

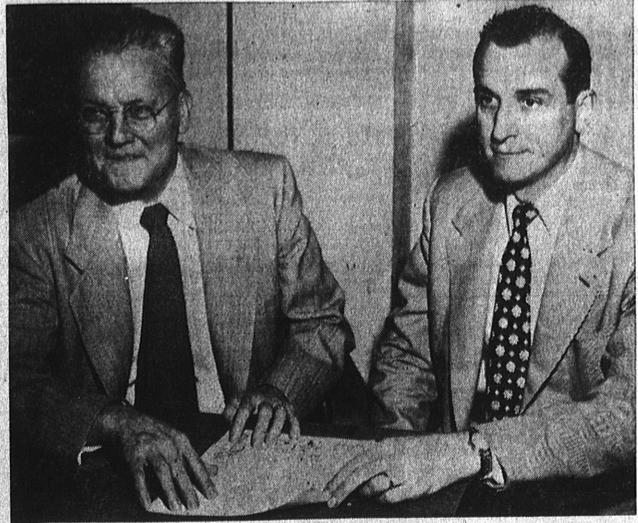

GOD uses the church to woo men to the better life. The church must have leaders, and the church also has many ordinary, humble people who trust God and walk by faith... blindfolded or not. God made the great Light, but to reflect the great Light to all His world, "He Made the Stars Also." He needs you.

Local Seaman Aboard Carrier

Brent D. Wilson, fireman USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson of 24336 Lucille Ave., Lomita, and Ben D. Jenkins, seaman, USN, of 616 E. Carson St., are aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge on her second tour in Korean waters.

The carrier is operating with fast carrier Task Force 77, developing an intensive combat readiness training program.

The Kearsarge was first commissioned in 1946, too late to see World War II action. With the outbreak of Korean hostilities the carrier was completely modernized and recommissioned in February 1952 at Bremerton, Wash., at which time she left the mothball fleet and took her place with Task Force 77.

Her home port is San Diego, Calif.

TOUR . . . Seventeen Torrance High School students representing 17 classes in civic studies at the school, toured the Naval Supply Depot, Torrance annex, last Thursday. Part of the group is shown above. Left to right are Lt. E. E. Nelson, manager of the Torrance annex; Pat Korczak, Charlie Jennings, Sandra Conditone, Fred Miller, Honey Horoso, John Zamarrza, Kenny Bowers, Beverly Vanderaffe, Phyllis Passano, Phil Gaul, Gary Rippelstein, and W. ## Woman Wins TV Contest

The old adage about the legendary good luck value of horseshoes has a lot of significance to Mrs. Kay Tyler, 1908 Anapocia St., who was named one of the Mutual-Don Lee Network's Golden Horseshoe contest winners during a recent visit to the "Lucky-7" radio and television program in Hollywood, Calif.

Mrs. Tyler successfully answered the questions asked by MC Ken Carlin and thereby became one of the lucky visitors to garner a Golden Horseshoe gift during a trip to Hollywood.

The "Lucky-7" program is a regular Monday thru Friday feature over television station KTLV-TV, Los Angeles as well as the Mutual-Don Lee radio network.

Reflections

By J. HUGH SHEPHERD, JR.

WHAT HAVE WE DONE?

"We judge ourselves by what we feel capable of doing; others judge us by what we have done," was Longfellow's way of picking the bubble of an inflated ego.

A ball player is acclaimed when he makes the WINNING RUN; a teacher stands in the spotlight when her pupils GRASP her instructions; a farmer BANKS profit in ratio to his knowledge of seeds, soil and animals; our greatest mistakes are those men who GIVE their ardor thoughts by which they see right living business men SPOONED with their customer's trust until their after years of trial.

A Soap Box orator harangues his crowd and generally has sufficient recompense; he feels greater capabilities than he can deliver. The boasting humbug has derisive smiles but the person who does, and lets others discover his virtues, stands on the horizon of acceptance.

It isn't what you say it's what you do that brings the mantle of approbation.

"WE HAVE SERVED THIS COMMUNITY FOR 31 YEARS"
